

Messe Stuttgart · 24. – 27.04.2025

www.messe-stuttgart.de/fairhandeln/agb

Criteria for approval as an exhibitor at Fair Handeln:

All exhibitors of the trade fair Fair Handeln have to pass an admission test. The admission is carried out by the trade fair's professional and conceptual partner - the Stiftung Entwicklungs-Zusammenarbeit Baden-Württemberg (SEZ). Please tick your desired exhibition area below. You can apply for ONE of the six areas and only need to tick the boxes for one area you have selected and provide the required proof. With your signature you confirm the admission criteria. These are binding for all exhibitors.

! Please select ONE exhibition area and submit the required documents.

Intention to exhibit in the field of Fair Trade

We hereby confirm that our company solely operates as the definition from FINE, the international umbrella organization of the four main Fairtrade networks (FLO, IFAT, NEWS! And EFTA) or that the range of products on display at the Fair Handeln stand are procured and marketed in accordance with the above-mentioned definition. We hereby prove that the information is accurate through:
(please provide documentary evidence with your application)

membership of the World Fair Trade Organization (WFTO) recognition by the Association of World Shops Germany membership in FAIR BAND or the following product certifications (for all exhibited products)

Fairtrade	Naturland Fair	Ecocert Fair Trade
fair for life	SPP certification	Fairtrade cotton in conjunction with GOTS or IVN Best

If no criterion applies to you: We hereby prove that we fulfil the above criteria by means of an informal and transparent description of our trade relations (maximum 1 DIN A4 page). We also list memberships and/or verification procedures and submit documentary evidence with the exhibition registration form.

Intention to exhibit in the field of development cooperation Institutions, organisations and networks operating at a national and international level and which are active in the areas of lobbying and providing information and education on development themes with concrete offers and with multipliers as target groups and/or carrying out project work in the area of development cooperation. We confirm with our signature that the commitment and dedication demonstrated at the Fair Handeln stand corresponds to the above-mentioned description.

Intention to exhibit in the field of sustainable finance

Entitled to exhibit are institutions which are actively involved with a sense of social and ecological responsibility in the areas of products, business operations, proprietary trading or provide information services in these three areas. Or fund managers who administer the assets of investors in sustainable funds/securities.

Intention to exhibit in the field of sustainable tourism

Entitled to exhibit are companies that take ecological criteria into account in product creation and design (including the selection of accommodation) as well as implement climate protection measures, include the local value chain, represent the minimum standards of the ILO for decent work and provide information on a gentle and respectful handling of the cultural goods and characteristics of the destination. Exhibitors are examined in cooperation with TourCert gGmbH.

Please tick the appropriate box and attach evidence.

We are certified by TourCert

We are in the process of examination by TourCert

We hold another certification in the area of sustainable tourism

We belong to one or several of the following groups, which have committed themselves to the sustainable approach to tourism (e. g. Forum Anders Reisen, ECPAT):

Please state name: _____

Company

Contact person

Messe Stuttgart · 24. – 27.04.2025

www.messe-stuttgart.de/fairhandeln/agb

Criteria for approval as an exhibitor at Fair Handeln:

Intention to exhibit in the field of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)

Authorised to exhibit are companies meeting the following criteria: if they cooperate with suppliers (individual companies and trade chains) and/or have subsidiaries in countries of the Global South, who are a member of the UN Global Compact or whose products are produced in conjunction with the ten principles of the UN Global Compact. Also authorised to exhibit are organizations and consultants working in the "CSR and development cooperation" sector or are a member of the „Klimabündnis Baden-Württemberg“ (Climate Alliance Baden-Wuerttemberg).

Please tick:

Our company is a member of the Global Compact.

or

We hereby confirm that our company operates in accordance with the above-mentioned principles of the Global Compact (the company does not necessarily have to be a member of the Global Compact) and confirm that the commitment and dedication presented at the Fair Handeln stand is based on the principles of the Global Compact. We confirm this with a self-presentation (maximum 1 DIN A4 page).

or

Our company is a member of Klimabündnis and/or KLIMAWIN-Charta Baden-Württemberg (Climate Alliance Baden-Wuerttemberg).

Intention to exhibit in the Special section Future Fashion

Companies are admissible if they are in the clothing and textile industry / designers / labels / startups and can demonstrate concrete measures for and a high degree of transparency about how they implement social, environmental and cultural aspects of sustainability in their operations and / or together with the players involved in the value chain. This must be credibly demonstrated by answering a questionnaire and providing evidence. You will receive the documents for the admission test after registration.

Institutions, organizations and networks that provide information, lobbying and/or educational work on sustainable textiles and sustainable textile consumption with concrete offers and projects (without sale of goods).

We hereby confirm that the commitment and dedication demonstrated at the Fair Handeln stand corresponds to the above-mentioned description. We are ready to respond immediately to any questions about approval by the Stiftung Entwicklungs-Zusammenarbeit Baden-Württemberg (SEZ).

Further information on the admission criteria for the trade fair can be found on the SEZ website at

<https://sez.de/themen/fair-handeln/messe-fair-handeln/richtlinien>

Place, Date

Company stamp and legally binding signature